

Going the Distance

Whether your customers are training for a marathon, sprinting across the finish line or trying to balance their inner self, PGP International is there to go the distance with you. Consumers want good taste, convenience and nutritional value from sports, snack and meal replacement bars.

As a leading developer and manufacturer of extruded cereal pieces, PGP International can offer solutions to enhance flavor and texture, increase protein, add fiber, balance nutrition and reduce carbohydrates with its complete lineup of crisp particulates.

How far will you go? At PGP International our team is ready to accept your toughest formulation and development challenges and to go the distance with you.
